

Referrals and Eligibility

Individuals 21 and older who have a developmental disability may be referred to ARC Adult Day Independent Living Program and any parent, relative, individual, or agency who has knowledge of any adult individual in need of services.

To make a referral, please contact:
Albany ARC Adult Day Independent Living
Carter Day
229.436.4553

Albany Advocacy Resource Center Vision

All of us at ARC believe it is our duty to see to it that everyone should have the same opportunities to enjoy the same rights and freedoms, regardless of abilities or disabilities.

Albany ARC is a non-profit organization started in 1963. Its basic purposes are to promote the general welfare of people with disabilities, wherever they may be and to foster the development of programs on their behalf.

Albany Advocacy Resource Center
2616 Pointe North Blvd.
Albany, GA 31721
229.888.6852
Annette Bowling, Executive Director
Sandra Edge, Assistant Executive Director

Albany ARC Adult Day Independent Living Program

Albany Advocacy Resource Center
Independent Day Living Center
1300 W. Broad Avenue
Albany, GA 31707
Kaycee Gilliard, Program Director
229.436.4553 ext: 101
www.albanyarc.org

Services Provided

Individuals are assessed and an individualized service plan is written for each individual, which contains specific goals and objectives to meet the needs of the that individual.

The individuals are monitored daily to record their progress. Once an objective has been mastered, a new objective is developed.

A center-based program offering instruction in functional daily living skills, self-help skills, exercise, functional education skills and safely guidelines for living.

Provides leisure activities, socialization, and companionship through community integration.

Adult Day Independent Living Program

The Albany ARC Adult Day Independent Living Program is designed to meet the needs of adults with developmental disabilities.

Our program offers services to adult individuals who are in need of day services. This program offers instruction in self-help skills, daily living skills, socialization, safety, exercise and functional skills for daily living.

Leisure activities, companionship, and socialization through community integration are available along with twice weekly Therapeutic Horseback Riding lessons provided by Southwest Georgia Therapeutic Riding Center.

